

The Association of Insurance Professionals

Membership Dues

---

2010-2011 Membership Year

Ends June 30, 2011

Active Member Annual Dues - $ 86.50 plus Local Dues
Student Member Annual Dues - $65.00 plus Local Dues

Member-At-Large Annual Dues - $ 96.50
Student Member-At-Large Annual Dues - $65.00

---

2011-2012 Membership Year

Begins July 1, 2011

Active Member Annual Dues - $ 88.50 plus Local Dues
Student Member Annual Dues - $66.50 plus Local Dues

Member-At-Large Annual Dues - $ 98.50
Student Member-At-Large Annual Dues - $66.50

---

The membership year runs from July 1 the current year through June 30 the following year.
Membership Renewal Dues are due and payable on July 1.

January 1 through June 30 each year, membership dues are reduced by one-half the annual rate.

---

MEMBERSHIP DUES ARE NON-REFUNDABLE

---

Membership Eligibility

---

Membership eligibility includes, but is not limited to:

- a. Employees of insurance companies, agencies and those handling insurance/risk management functions (i.e. health benefit coordinators at public utility, risk manager at restaurant, etc.)
- b. Employees of Third Party Administrators (TPA) and adjusting organizations.
- c. Employees of trade associations, rating, auditing, salvage, engineering, investigative, reporting, statistical and advisory boards, bureaus and companies.
- d. Members of editorial staffs of publications which cover the insurance and risk management industry.
- e. Attorneys at law regularly handling insurance and/or risk management functions.
- f. Employees of premium finance companies.
- g. Professors and other educators who teach/author courses in the insurance and risk management industry.
- h. Accountants regularly employed in the insurance and risk management industry.
- i. Employees of companies providing repair, restoration and/or replacement of property following an insured loss, medical rehabilitation, auditing and structured settlements.